

psalm

on the church tower pigeons have perched missionary calls for the holy mass but the exhausted priest can pray only with his sleep crouched at the feet of the cross, he snores

that is his psalm

Poem from Stained Glass by Joanna Kurowska eLectio Publishing 2015 (forthcoming) ©2015 by Joanna Kurowska